

TOKODO ROD

The TOKODO ROD is used to heal the earth or harmonize large areas of land in the case of very persistent energetic stress. It is used in combination with the HEMISPHERE LILAC.

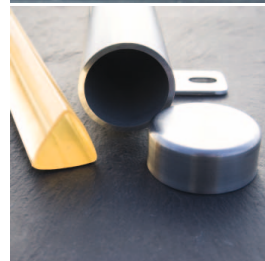

The flora and fauna, but of course also humans, benefit from a high harmonic energy oscillation in the range of the TOKODO ROD. It is possible to promote the creation of new power places.

TOKODO RODS can also be used in combination with the TERRA SET.

The use of TOKODO RODS requires prior individual testing. Our consultants are at your disposal.

A special mounting tube is available for this product.
